Heather has advised Raquel that the Australian police are no longer looking to locate you as they have concluded your are in Canada. They were apparently trying to find you as you were listed as a missing person.

If you are in Canada, contact us asap.

If you are not in Canada return to Australia asap for your boys' sake. You are putting them under life changing stress. How is this acceptable?

You cannot abandon your boys. Period.

You have subjected all of us to extreme stress these past few weeks. It is time to realize this and return to Newcastle and your boys.
