OFFICIAL

Dear Mr Cooke,

You became bankrupt on 22 November 2025 and the Official Trustee in Bankruptcy, for which I act, is the trustee of your bankrupt estate.

The Official Trustee's duties under the Bankruptcy Act 1966 include investigating your dealings, transactions, property and affairs. The trustee is also empowered to sell certain property for the benefit of the estate.

You disclosed in your Statement of Affairs that are involve in a family court proceeding or family law financial agreements. You are required to provide the following:

- A written explanation of the background of the proceedings.
- Please advise if there is a property involved in the proceedings.
- Please advise the status of the proceedings (if it is on-going or completed).
- A copy of all documents in relation to this matter, such as copy of the Court/Consent Order and the statement of financial position (if available).

I note that you did not disclose your bank account details in your Statement of Affairs. You are required by the Official Trustee to provide the following:

- Please provide your active bank accounts (name of the financial institution and account number).
- Copies of bank statements of all active bank accounts for the period, 22 May 2025 to 22 November 2025 (if available).
- Screenshot of the account balance as of 22 November 2025.

Your urgent response is highly appreciated.

Thanking you in advance.

Kind Regards,

Johnson Baquiran
